

Canadiana Assignment

Resources Required: pen, atlas, Canadian reference materials (almanac), computer with Internet access

Suggested Internet Reference Sites:

Statistics Canada

<http://www.statcan.ca>

The Canadian Encyclopedia

<http://www.histori.ca>

Provincial and Territorial governments

<http://gc.ca/othergov-autregouv/prov-eng.html>

Instructions: Answer the following questions on a separate sheet of paper.

1. What is the capital of Canada and which province is it located in?
2. Who is the prime minister of Canada and which political party does he lead?
3. How big is Canada (sq. km.) and how many people live in this country?
4. List Canada's 13 provinces and territories in the order in which they joined Canada.
5. Add the following information:

1) capital city	2) premier and the party in power
3) size (sq. km.)	4) population
6. List the three largest provinces or territories. (biggest to smallest)
7. List the three smallest provinces or territories. (smallest to biggest)
8. Which three provinces or territories have the most people? (biggest to smallest)
9. List three reasons why you think these regions have the most people.
10. Which three provinces or territories have the fewest people? (smallest to biggest)
11. List three reasons why you think these regions have the fewest people.
12. Which province or territory has coastline on the Pacific Ocean?
13. Which three territories have coastline on the Arctic Ocean?
14. List four provinces that have coastline on the Atlantic Ocean.
15. List three advantages of coastline.
16. Which two provinces do not have any coastline?

